

< NT 157 ends iden
March 1985

[[[[[[[African Echoes]]]]]]]]

Presents a Lecture Series
"African Man/Woman, Know Thyself"

"To illuminate our Real African History, To clarify our African Present, To Brilliantly Project
our African Future" - Sister Kefa Nephthys

- March 31 — Roderick Thurton - Professor of Political Science & African Civilization, Queens College and City College of New York.
- Topic: A Tribute to Walter Rodney (Author of "How Europe Underdeveloped Africa")
Plus — "Crisis in the Periphery" by Rodney (on video tape)
- April 14 — Dr. Mbaimba Caulker - Professor of African Studies at Seton Hall University and Native of Sierra Leone, West Africa.
- Topic: The Meaning and Significance of the African Heritage.
- April 28 — Hetty Fox - Founder & Executive Director of the Neo-Presearch Energy Foundation
- Topic: "The Responsibility of Living our Culture"
- May 5 — Kassahun Checole - Professor of African Studies at Rutgers University in New Brunswick and Native of Ethiopia.
- Topic: Current U.S. Economy's Impact on the African/American Community.

All Lectures take place at St. Agnes Episcopal Church, 304 Central Ave., East Orange, N.J.
There will be a discussion period after each lecture. For information call 201-373-3826.

Donation: $2.00

Time: 4:30 P.M.